

The Scot Daku Family —

Dear Praying Friends,

Psalms 46:1- “God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble”. There is no other source of help and strength! As our family looks forward to what God has for us on the mission field, it is comforting to know that our God is our “very present help”.

After many months of being absent, Scot, and his parents, Paul and Martha Daku, touched down in Fiji on February 18th. Scot was in Fiji for about a month and was encouraged by the spirit of the people. On Saturday visitation, Makita sobbed as she prayed to receive Christ (she is on the far right). They have been searching for the truth since the death of her husband who was an atheist. Praise God she has been coming to church ever since, hungry to hear the Word! Scot was also able to secure a house for our family to move into upon our arrival on June 16th! What a surprise to learn it was going for 600 dollars cheaper than the last tenant.

Yes, it's exciting to return to the field, but it is indeed a process! Our days are filled with packing, sorting, purchasing, purging, cleaning etc. We are packing a container with: furniture, church chairs, tables, Bibles, school books, and a riding lawnmower for the camp ministry, etc. Please pray as we handle last minute details and packing. Preparations are underway for our Youth/Junior camp in Fiji on July 11-18th. It should be an exciting time as God's Word is taught intensely. Also, please change our mailing to our P.O. Box 11458, Nadi Airport, Fiji Islands as of 1st June, 2022.

Thank you all who have given to our “Travel Expense Fund”. As of right now, we have collected $7,500 dollars. Praise God for allowing us to meet our goal! He always supplies our needs!

Till He Comes,

Scot, Katie, Scot J., Jenna, Andrew, Benjamin, Emmie, David, and Mary
